

PRESS RELEASE

A new version of app Campings is available for Android and iOS

The KoobCamp network, leader in the outdoor sphere with Campeggi.com and other field portals, presents the new version of the App Campings for smartphone and tablet, which is now more complete and stable but always for free.

Outdoor tourists who want to organize their holidays in the best Italian and European campsites and villages can now take advantage of a new instrument, free of charge and available on mobile devices. In view of season 2017, the KoobCamp network, takes its rich database of accommodations and information of the Internet portal Campeggi.com (www.campeggi.com/en) to the new version of the app Campings for smartphone and tablet equipped with operative systems Android and Apple iOS.

Even more complete and more stable if compared to previous version, the free app Campings is now available on Google Play Store and on App Store of Apple iTunes in the multi-language version. More updates and improvements are scheduled for the rest of the year. Here following the news of the new version:
