

CAMPEGGI.COMThe guide to the campsites and tourist resorts for your holiday

Campeggi.com is not only the leading advertising portal for campsites and tourist resorts who are looking for online visibility, but also the reference point for all the tourists who want to organize their en-plain-air holiday. Founded in 2003, it is the most representative portal for the touristic network KOBCAMP, which gathers more than 30 specialized Italian and European websites.

The purpose of Campeggi.com is to provide users with all the available information about camping and holiday villages. This aim is achieved through detailed information, available in the most popular tongues. Moreover, to grant the clearness and truthfulness of the inserted data, the accommodations insert the data on the portal, which are then verified by a team of 30 experts.

Campeggi.com represents a guarantee of visibility and detailed information:

- Online visibility on the core advertising portal for campgrounds and tourist resorts
- Detailed illustration of all the accommodations with pictures and contacts
- Descriptions available in 9 languages
- Continuously updated and proved information
- Possibility to sort the research for regions and services
- Special offers on the foreground
- Accommodation facilities in Italy, Croatia, Spain, France

To the accommodation facilities, Campeggi.com offers visibility solutions both in Italy and in Europe, which optimization is based on their specific needs. The portal is made for for camping and holiday villages who want to increase their web reputation and their number of potential clients. This portal is a very powerful tool, designed to make all the facilities immediately recognizable and promote all special offers at the proper time.

To private citizens Campeggi.com always offers up-to-date travel solutions, with pictures and information that can be useful for the organization of every kind of holiday. Through this portal, tourists have at any time the possibility to check all the services offered by the facilities on the portal: Wi-Fi internet connection, pet-friendly accommodations, location on the map, parking, etc. The guests can also have a look at all the services before leaving for the holiday and are free to choose between online booking or direct contact with the accommodation of their choice.
